DOG SPREADS TERROR IN SHOPPING DISTRICT; SHOT BY POLICEMAN Spring Frock for Street

Small Canine Clears Out Barroom and Jewelry Store and Scatters Crowds.

A little black nondescript dog owned by Frederick Guenther chewed his leash to pieces late yesterday afternoon and fell off a second floor extension at his master's apartments, No. 163 West Thirty-fourth Street. Landing on an extension on the floor below he rushed howling into the yard.

Neighbors on Thirty-fifth Street became alarmed and summoned Patrolman Duffy. George Dumas, caretaker at No. 161 West Thirty-fourth Street, ffered to take charge of the dog until Mr. Guenther should come home. His offer was accepted, but the dog eluded him about 5.30 P. M.

The dog ran westward along Thirtyfourth Street until he came to Flaherty's saloon at Seventh Avenue. Foaming at the mouth he darted under the swinging doors. Twoscore feet which had been burnishing the rall were Wear Requires Study to Combine Simplicity and Individuality So as to Make It Effective -Some Things to Be Avoided.

EXPERT ADVICE FREE TO HOME DRESSMAKERS

If you are in doubt about what styles or colors become you; if the making or remodelling of a gown perplexes you; if you are uncertain as to when and where to wear your clothes, Mile. Lode-

Copyright, 1918, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World). Now that the question of the spring spring frock, for wear when the suit is too warm, is interesting those women who appreciate the importance of street clothes. It is on the street that most people we know see us. Every time we go out we take a chance of meeting our most particular friends who somehow never do happen to see us when we are all dressed up at some special function.

No wonder, then, that women sacrifice a great deal of time and energy and money on their street clothes! Probably the most important feature of the frock for such wear is simplicity. To abide strictly by this mandate of appropriateness and good style, and yet achieve distinction for the frock and becomingness for the wearer, is not an easy matter. One imagines that most any simple style will look ordinary, and in trying to save a frock from such a state an undue amount of elaboration is often ndulged in with dieastrous results. The out of the frock may be of the simplest sort, but a dashing surplice crossing to the bodice, a smart and secoming collar and cuff set, an odd tendency to make a person look larger of proportions. The larger the check the stronger the influence. Have a plain dark color if you would appear

Will you advise me how many yards of material is required for the blouse at the right in your sketch of Tuesday's paper? Would Cluny lace be suitable inserted to make the design? I have pale blue Georgette crepe for waist.

The design requires two and a quarter yards of crepe. Yes, Cluny insertion would not only be suitable but very effective. Dear Fashion Editor:

The man in the moon came down too soon, So he thought that he would go back; But soon did he find that he'd changed his mind, When he tasted some Cracker Jack. All the youngsters and grown-ups who have tasted it agree with him, too. All those who haven't tried Cracker Jack The more you eat, the more you want have a real treat in store when they eat some of the ideal confection—a delicious combination of popcorn, peanuts and molasses candy with the natural color and flavor. Cracker Jack is a wellbalanced food. It contains more of the stuffthat-makes-stamina than regular articles of food of recognized wholesomeness, such as beefsteak, potatoes, even milk and eggs. Cracker Jack is made of the best ingredients obtainable, in a strictly up-to-date factory. No hands touch it in making or packing. There's a prize for the children in every package of Cracker Jack, the ideal confection.

It was learned yesterday that within the last two days five Roman Catholic rectories in North Hudson, N. J., have been robbed. The only clue is said to be finger prints one of the robbers lett on an empty beer bottle. They drank four bottles of beer in the Holy Family rectory at Union Hill, took is from a priest's overcost and then tossed the cost on top of a closet.

A small sum of money and sliver candle boxes were stolen from St. Augustine's rectory in Union Hill and from the rectories of St. Mary and St. Joseph In West New York. The rectory of the Slavonian Church at Guttenbers was also robbed.

This year Georgette greps having proven itself worthilly durable and practical, is combined extensively with that ubiquitous spring fabric, the Riavonian Church at Guttenbers was also robbed.
